For the Confederate veterans' home, near Nashville, the committee recommends an appropriation of $3,500 to pay off a deficit caused by drouth and the fallure of crops for the past two years; that $20 per capita be allowed for urial expenses when necessary to bury the dead, and that an appropriation of $290 per annum be made for each of two trustees, who ave to visit the institution and pay for their wn convayance.

Appropriations aggregating $25,280 are recom-needed for the school for the blind at Nashville, n order to provide more room for colored and white children, for furniture, for plumbing for new buildings, for musical instruments, grad-ing grounds, etc. Appropriations aggregating $25,335 are recommended for the Tennessee Infusicial School, which, the committee says, fafter a careful and close investigation," they believe to be one of the best managed institu-tions of the kind in America. These approgria-tions are for deficit incurred for supplies for the past two years; for a tract of land for the farm; for a crematory for the refuse of the institution, which has and can have no sewerage: for the insurance of the property for the uext five years, and for an additional building for boys. It is recommended that for all the institutions the per capita appropriation remain the same as for the past two years. FIFTY-FIFTH DAY.

The senate adopted a resolution providing for final adjournament on Monday, April 22. For several weeks it has been difficult to get a quorum in the house and the Skidmore reso-lution, adopted today, seeks to correct this evil. It makes it mandatory on the finance, ways and means committee not to include those members in the list for full per diem, and the house has ordered that a list of those who have been absent and the number of days they have not been present to be made out and given to this com-
